Christmas Calls

By Marjorie Howe Dixon

Oh, thousands of calls come to Santa In his generous heart there is place
For wee ones, and young ones and old ones
It is writ in his jolly old face.

He listens to each, though he's busy A-packing the toys he will take All over the world to the children Over mountain and valley and lake.

The telephone rings, "Oh, Santa, This is Jimmy that lives by the Mill,
I've four little brothers and sisters,
There are five of our stockings to fill;

"Say, Santa, you fill all their stockings,
And mine—well, I really don't care Just so they get each want they've wanted
If you miss me, I'll still call it square."

"Good bye, Sir" and Santa is sighing
For brave little Jimmy-boy's sake
I think he will make a great effort And something to Jimmy will take.

Ting—a-ling,—agam the phone's ringing
They call and they call and they call!
If he weren't so darling and patient
He never could answer them all.

At last he must start on his journey Ting-a-ling,—it's the bells on his sleigh
Oh, hurry! the reindeer are waiting!
It's time to be off and away!

When Santa arrives with his presents
He is chuckling,—the fun he will give!
And his jolly old heart is a-glowing Spreading joy wherever folks live.
